EX-MINISTER SMYTHE HERE.

Going to Washington to Confer About Coaling Stations.

Among the guests registered at the Jefferson last night was Hon. Henry M. Smythe, of Tazewell, who is one of the best known editors in Southwest Virginia, and was Minister to Haiti under Mr. Cleveland's Administration. Mr. Smythe is on his way to Washington, where he goes to confer with some of the higher government authorities with reference to the establishment of coaling stations in the West Indies.
When Mr. Smythe returned from Haiti, at the expiration of his term as Minister, he had obtained the necessary concessions for a coaling station at one of the most important ports of that island, but the matter was not followed up, and nothing came of it. Recently, however, Mr. Smythe has been in correspondence with department officials, and the proposed conference results from this correspondence.
Mr. Smythe speaks enthusiastically of Judge Rhea's chances of election to Congress from the Ninth District. The Democrats are united in support of Judge Rhea, and he is making a fine impression. The campaign promises to be one of the most interesting and exciting of recent years in the Southwest, and the Democratic nominee is regarded as the one of all others to successfully cope with General Walker.

NEGRO HACK-DRIVERS FIGHT.

Three of Them Arrested Yesterday—Other Arrests.

Joe Thomas, Peachy Smith, and Edward Randolph, colored hack-drivers, engaged in a fight in the First District yesterday, contrary to the ideas of good behavior entertained by Captain Whitlock, and so they were taken in. The capture of them was made by Policeman Vest.
Ellen Williams alias Lucy Johnson alias Lucy Dickson alias Cindarella St. Clair is locked up at the First Station. She has been eluding the officers for a long time, and the specific charge for which she is wanted at this time is that of buying a lot of furniture from A. J. Daffron on installment and then selling it. The value of the furniture was placed at $5.50, of which she had paid $1. The woman says she is not the one wanted, but Sergeant Hall is quite sure she is.
Thomas Prentiss is also a guest at the First Station. He is charged with assaulting John H. Lacy, one of the colored soldiers, and with having stolen his clothes, which he has always worn in this vision a prophetic description of what human life would be at the end of the world, after the last judgment, when the Lord should come again and reign on the earth. He has thought of the New Jerusalem as the Lord's final and perfect church on the earth, when all sorrow should be swept away and joy and goodness reign. The interpretation is quite right, so long as it rests in these general terms; but when men have tried to go into details and to make definite about the particulars of the description of the Holy City, they have gone astray very widely and come into the greatest confusion.
